

New British Music & Bands

- Music

- Britpop: - A genre which arose at the beginning of the 1990s
 - mixture of traditional British pop and rock music
 - it was for example played by Oasis, Blur and

Radiohead

- Drum and Bass: - A genre which also arose at the beginning of the 1990s

- A sort of electronic dance music
- fast music without lyrics

- Bands

- Black Honey: -Indie band from Brighton
 - One of the most exciting bands of 2014

- Pet Shop Boys: - A Pop group of Neil Tennant and Chris Lowe
 - timeless songwriting craft

Bands:

Black Honey:

- Izzy Bee, Chris Ostler, Tommy Taylor and Tom Dwayne
- Described as one of the most exciting bands in 2014 by many critics
- Their debut EP released in late October 2013

Mumford and Sons:

- Marcus Mumford, Winston Marshall, Ben Lovett and Ted Dwayne
- Exists since 2007
- Plays a mixture of Country, Bluegrass and Folk
- Their first album was directly very popular (number 11 in the British charts)

Admiral Fallow:

- Louis Abbott, Kevin Brolly, Philip Hague, Sarah Hayes and Joe Rattray
- Founded in 2007 by Louis Abbott
- Their original name was Brother Louis Collective
- Their first album, Boots Met My Face, was released worldwide in 2011
- They play orchestral indie pop