

LOCH NESS

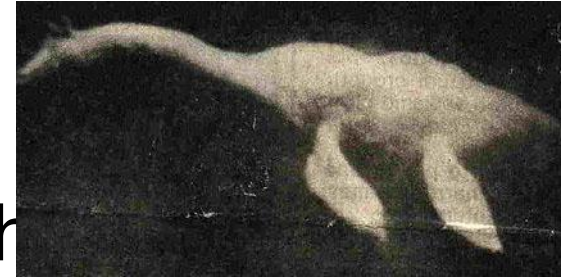

Hannah Hafner & Julika
Riehle

Loch Ness Monster

- also referred to as Nessie
- lives in the Scottish loch of Loch Ness
- scientists think that "Nessie" is a plesiosaur
- 20 meters long
- first known mention 565
- 2 May 1933 first time in the newspaper

NESSI

PRO

- views, pictures, videos

CONTRA

- 2003 experience from BBC to find it with 600 sonar beams
- pictures look often just like birds or...

The lake Loch Ness

- freshwater lake in Scottish Highlands
- 37 km away from Inverness
- surface area: 56 km²
- second biggest lake in Scotland
- largest volume
- deepest point 230m
- crossing while swimming: 37km in 10 hours and 59 minutes
- since 2002 every year Loch Ness Marathon
- Place of spawn from Atlantic salmon

Sources

https://simple.wikipedia.org/wiki/Loch_Ness

<https://www.britannica.com/place/Loch-Ness-lake-Scotland-United-Kingdom>

https://simple.wikipedia.org/wiki/Loch_Ness_Monster

<https://www.english-online.at/science/loch-ness-monster/loch-ness-monster.htm>

Some pictures of my own trip