

Kidwelly Castle

Kidwelly Castle is one of the best preserved castles in Wales. It was built in the 12th century and has been an embattled border castle which can be still visited today. The castle yard is huge, the towers can be visited as well and one living palas is in a very good condition. The towers give a good view by the way. You can also explore many hidden rooms and imagine where the roaring fireplaces would have been.

image source and more information: Kidwelly Castle

image source: geograph.org.uk

Carmarthen Castle

Carmarthen Castle is now a castle ruin that was one of most important Anglo-Norman fortresses of south-west Wales in the Middle Ages. Today it is equipped with interactive wind-up info points and old police cells. Visitors also like the great view since the castle is located in the centre of the city Carmarthen.

image source an more information: Carmathen Castle

